Entry conditions
Simmering power plant

Dear guests!

Thank you for your interest in our facilities. For your personal safety and also to avoid disruption to ongoing operations, we must ensure that neither personal injury nor damage to property can occur. We therefore ask all guests to observe and take note of the following points.

1 Site tour

1.1 All requests made by the person in charge of the tour must be complied with.

1.2 Guests may not leave the group. Unauthorised access to operating facilities or other parts of the factory premises away from the group is prohibited.

1.3 It is not permitted to touch any machinery, equipment or other operational fixtures or fittings.

1.4 It is not permitted to pass under stationary or mobile loads (cranes, overhead or elevated tracks) or to remain on railway tracks on the site.

1.5 Persons with limited mobility (e.g., walking impediments) and those with heart- or brain-pacemakers or pregnant guests are generally not permitted to take part in the tour. Blind or deaf guests require a personal escort.

1.6 Children can attend the tour starting from the age of 14.

1.7 All visitors must wear closed and stable shoes with flat heels and long trousers.

1.8 Helmets and safety shoes or safety overshoes must be worn, ear protection and safety goggles must be used (Sufficient rental equipment is available).

1.9 It is not permitted to carry umbrellas or walking sticks and the like. Bags and backpacks must be stored.

1.10 Filming and taking photographs are only allowed when authorised.

1.11 Smoking and littering are prohibited.

2 Liability

2.1 The visit is at your own risk. Wien Energie GmbH cannot accept any liability towards guests for accidents or other damage, unless this is contrary to mandatory law.

2.2 Guests are personally liable to pay compensation for any damage caused by them to the plant facilities.

3 Acknowledgement

3.1 Each individual guest confirms by signature that they have read and accepted the conditions of admission.

3.2 If individuals with a legal guardian take part in a site tour, the signature of the legal guardian is also required. Instead of the signature of the legal guardian, the guest under whose supervision the non-authorized guests are at the time of the tour may also sign.

3.3 If tour leaders are explicitly named, these individuals shall take care of the correct acknowledgement of all the terms and conditions contained herein, the necessary signatures and/or declarations and shall hand this sheet over to the member of staff responsible for conducting the tour.

I have fully understood all the access conditions listed on this sheet and will comply with these access conditions without exception!
